About the Walk

This is a fascinating tour of three historic parish churches in the downsland village of Bramber, Upper Beeding and Boltons.

Starting from the car park in Bramber, you walk up the hill to the early Norman church of St Nicholas with its unique stone carvings, visit the Castle ruins, which offer superb views of the river and the South Downs.

The walk then descends to the river valley, an area alive with wetland birds, butterflies and dragonflies in the summer, and the wild flowers and grasses abound. The path crosses the River Adur and climbs to St Peter’s church at Upper Beeding. This is the former church to Salle Priory, founded when the Benedictine monks moved from Bramber.

Returning to the river you cross the High Street, following the towpath to the Crowland church of St Botolph with its ornate windows and Jacobean pulpit. Then return along the opposite side of the river past one of the most important historic houses in the area and through Bramber Street with its attractive houses, hosteles and restaurants.

The town of Saint Cuthman (CTSAO), Steyning is rich in history, with scores of timber-framed buildings in and around the ancient High Street, and its excellent museum. It was once a port on the then navigable estuary of the River Adur and was prized by the Normans; their legacy today includes the magnificent parish church and the ruins of the castle in nearby Bramber.

The walk is around 4 miles and takes approximately 2 hours. There are some stiles and during the winter months it can be muddy. Apart from the Castle Mount most of the footpaths are in the river valley. The car park at Bramber offers free parking and the bus stop is close by. There are numerous opportunities for food and drink in Bramber and Upper Beeding.

The Street Bramber Start

Leave the car park in The Street, Bramber; turn right along the road to the sign on the right to St Nicholas’ Church, take path up to church and car park; this is one of the oldest Norman churches in Sussex and originally the chapel to the castle.

Look out for the early Norman carved capitals on the chancel arch. Also the Royal Coat of Arms & Bramber Mace and take in the breathtaking views to the south over the Adur Valley.

Bramber Castle to St. Peter’s Church

After leaving the church, turn right and enter the ruins of Bramber Castle built by William de Braose around 1073 with its fine 360 degree views over the surrounding villages and countryside and offering a wonderful spot for a picnic. Leave by same route.

St. Peter’s Church to St. Botolph’s Church

Return down the steps and cross the wooden bridge again, turn left alongside stream towards the river bank, pass through kissing gate by a pump house and continue by the river to the brick road bridge via another kissing gate. Cross the road and take the path alongside the Bridge Inn with the river on your right. Pass the garden of the King’s Head, continue along the river deviating around an old dry dock, and on under a concrete road bridge. Continue on river bank and after about 10 minutes the old cement works are visible beyond a metal footbridge. Turn right over this bridge and cross river, signedposted South Downs Way. Turn right on far bank. After a short distance you will see a path off to the left signedposted public bridleway next to a small stream. This leads to the road (ignore right turn onto Downs Link). Turn left taking care at the sharp corner. The Saxon Church of St Botolph’s is on the left. This simple church once had a north aisle when it was part of a prosperous and populated area.

Look out for evidence of wall paintings on the chancel arch; the finely carved Jacobean pulpit and the two low-side windows. This type of window, giving a slant view of the altar, was for those not allowed inside the church (lepers from the nearby leper hospital in Bramber).

Finish at The Street Bramber

Turn right on leaving and retrace route to the river. Turn left away from the footbridge and continue on river bank. There are three stiles before the concrete road bridge is reached. Go straight on under the bridge along the bank until you reach the flint wall at the cottage opposite the Bridge Inn before Beeding Bridge, turn left and keep hedge on right, with the mobile home park in the distance. When you reach that, go through a kissing gate and turn right along drive. Just before the road, you will see the historic St Mary’s House (a 15th century inn for pilgrims on their way to the tomb of St Thomas a Becket at Canterbury) on the left. Turn left up The Street, passing the Castle Inn and the car park is on your right.
